CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1901.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

ROBERT WADDELL WINS AGAIN.

As if to show the public that Robert Waddell's victory in the Derby was as it should have been and that his gelding was an all round race horse, Mr. Bradley started him in the fifth race at Washington Park yesterday. It was one of those made ahead condition affairs of allowances and the Derby had not got under its charitable searchlight. So the Derby winner was hardly penalized among a band of six song and dance turf tools. The ring treats Mr. Bradley as a joke, even when Mr. Bradley sells staples. So its denizens sold the Derby winner for far too cheap a price. It was two and a half to one in ring parlance or in that of everyday ten cent calico for five cents. The ring's price was false and costly to the sellers, because Robert Waddell won in that jaunty way that great horses win among every-day horses.

It was an afternoon of great horse performance at the track. The five furlong record was twice broken. First, Mr. Tom McDowell brought an improved edition of Maid Marion up from his farm on the Frankfort pike. It was the well and historically named Alan a Dale, by Halma—Sudie McNairy, a chestnut colt of noble presence and an aristocratic and old fashioned way of going. Only sore shins was offered as an excuse against work and weight for the distance in one minute. The ring took no liberty with Alan a Dale. He was always odds-on, and won in that goodness of manner—an elderly suggestion of good wine. His time was 1:00%, displacing the track record of 1:00% of six eighths and past two-year-olds. Alan a Dale will cut a smart figure in the racing of 1901. He may have run faster than the time of the race.

As if to show that she was not of the retiring kind and had speed claims of her own, John Schorr's noble filly, Endurance by Right, beat Alan a Dale's time in the third race for two-year-old fillies, the Lakeside Stakes, worth $2,540 to the winner. She was the favorite she deserved by performance to be and won in an impressively courageous way in one minute.

The Lady shouldered her impost of 112 in grand fashion and had no trouble disposing of a good field in the fourth race, a dash of one mile. Eva Rice took her along for nearly three-quarters but she soon shook off the Burdeau mare after entering the straightaway and was never in trouble afterward. The time, 1:38%, was a very creditable performance. Louisville was given a shabby ride and after getting clear sailing down the backstretch ran a striking race, closing much ground.

Pirate's Queen's light weight carried her in front of her field in the first race the entire route and she had no trouble winning handily over Excelsis and Fantasy.

Crest ran away with the last race in a jiffy, much to the surprise of many, as the mare has not started in months. She won from flag drop to wire, with the fast-closing Enghurst second.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Though the English stable lads have their grievances, they are apparently much better off than boys following the same calling in France. According to the following from the Paris correspondent of The Field the French boys are subjected to harsh if not cruel treatment: "With regard to the controversy which is going on as to the treatment of the boys employed in the racing stables of Chantilly, while the British chaplain there (only recently appointed) takes it upon himself to say ex cathedra that there is nothing to complain of, and that all is the best in the best of possible worlds, Mr.

Oscar Browning and several others who have made it their business to get to the root of the matter tell us that the condition of the lads is pitiable in the extreme; that they are badly lodged and worse fed, treated in many cases with great brutality, and quite neglected so far as religious and moral instruction goes. My own opportunities of seeing what really goes on in the principal stables have not been very frequent, but as far as my own knowledge and experience go I should say that the charge of neglect, if not of positive cruelty, is well founded. There are exceptions, of course, and one may be sure that trainers like the veteran T. R. Carter and several others of the old school will see that their head lads do not bully or maltreat the boys under their control; but there are others who delegate all this to the head lads themselves, who are in too many cases ignorant and brutal and under whom the stable boys lead a very hard life. It is to be hoped that the proposal to submit the matter to the British Embassy in Paris, and to obtain the appointment of a committee to investigate the charges, will be carried through.

There will be a sale of thoroughbred yearlings at the Union Stock Yards at Chicago, Ill., July 8 and 9, 1901, by Woodard & Shanklin, of Lexington, Ky. This includes produce from the establishments of Mr. O. H. Chenault of the Spendthrift Stud; Mr. T. J. Clay and Mr. G. H. Clay of the Balgown Stud; Mr. R. L. Baker, Mr. H. C. Muir, Mr. C. Woodford of the Race-land Stud; Mr. C. F. McMeekin of the Oakwood Stud, and Col. L. F. Clay of the Runnymede Stud. There will also a number of other breeding establishments represented, and additional entries are solicited.

Two exceedingly fine two-year-olds ran at Washington Park yesterday, the great filly Endurance by Right and Mr. T. C. McDowell's colt Alan a Dale. The latter, a half-brother to Batten and the flying Maid Marian, made a most impressive debut, running away from his field and winning by many lengths in fast time. He is in the Kenwood and Hyde Park Stakes and is a candidate of formidable pretensions.

ELMENDORF COLTS SOLD.

Good prices were received at the sale of the Elmendorf stud yearlings, the property of James B. Baggin, which were offered Thursday in the Fasig-Tipton Company's paddocks opposite the Sheephead Bay track. Although there were forty-one catalogued only eighteen colts were placed under the hammer, the fillies, which included a full sister to Ornament, as well as others related to good performers, not being offered. The colts by Candlemas—Miss Maud brought the top price, Tom Welch paying $3,200 for him. P. Ryan gave $3,100 for the Nomad—Gorgo colt. The colt by Candlemas—Nell, a full brother to Stonanellie, The Sage, Sagacity and other good ones did not sell as well as expected, he being knocked down to Green B. Morris for $2,500. Summary:

Bay colt, by Shapfell—Amours; T. Welch, $ 550

Winner—Ch. c, by Meddler—Pearl Thorn.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Peninsula, seasoned and vigorously handled, finished very strongly and is steadily improving. Compute is considered the best in the Morris stable and will probably beat this kind very easily when next out. He disposed of Vagrant and drew away gamely at the end. Vagrant, carefully handled, lasted out well and hung on at the end. Port Royal was running out from the start on the turn and in the stretch and Spencer had to pull him to nearly a walk in the effort to keep him straight. Threw his race out.

Scratched—26172 Gay Boy, 115.

Peninsula, show, 3 to 5. Compute, show, 1 to 2. Vagrant, show, 7 to 10. Port Royal, show, out.

Winner—Ch. g, by St. Leonards—Prohibition II.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Outlander was never extended and was far the best at the weights. Ten Candles put up a splendid effort however after stumbling in the first quarter, but cannot stand being outrun. Mortallo ran a good race. He was not far away in the first three-quarters run in fast time.

Scratched—(26208) Wax Taper, 126; 26236 The Rhymer, 111.

Overweights—Outlander, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Meddler—Annot Lyle.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Cameron ran around the field on the turn and finished drawing away which makes him much the best. Laodice closed strongly after a bad break and wide turn. Lady Holyrood was interfered with on the turn but finished strongly under a poor ride. Rightaway had no mischances. Honolulu and Electress appeared to be contenders on the turn but quit in the last quarter. Dark Secret is a slow beginner and the big field hurt him. Neither One showed fine speed for a half but tired.

Scratched—25653 Postillion, 92; 26147 Santa Bonita, 89.

Cameron, show, 1 to 2. Laodice, show, 6 to 5. Lady Holyrood, show, 8 to 5. Dark Secret, show, 2 to 5.

26270 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds. Allowances. The Tidal Stakes. $1,500 added.

Winner—Blk. c, by Water Cress—Sabrina.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Water Color was not extended at any part of the journey and is a great sprinter and miler. The first two far outclassed the others. Smile was poorly handled, was shut off and crossed by the entire field one at a time and lay completely out of the race for three quarters, then finished with an electric rush at the end and was probably about as good as the winner. Military showed fine speed and stuck to his work well at the end. Arden and Agnes D. both showed a fast three-quarters.

Scratched—26149 The Puritan, 126.

Smile, show, out. Military, show, evens.

"SPECS" FOR HORSES.

A recent dispatch from New York says: "In a race a few days ago Glade Run wore spectacles, a fact which has caused much comment among horsemen. The glasses were designed by 'Pittsburg Phil' Smith. Glade Run is owned by young McGill, who is 'Pittsburg Phil's' nephew.

"The Gravesend track was full of small stones and gravel, which were thrown back with some force by the hoofs of the flying thoroughbreds. Shaw, who rode Glade Run in his races, reported that the horse seemed to be bothered a great deal by dirt and small stones striking him in the eyes, and the result was the eyeglasses.

"They are really only an improvement or an addition to the ordinary blinkers. There is a clear piece of celluloid, which comes down from the cup of the blinkers over the eye, thus affording a perfect protection from dust and dirt and at the same time enabling a horse to see perfectly. Glass might be broken by a stone, but the celluloid is not easily fractured.

"Especially are such glasses valuable on days when the track is muddy. Often horses who wear the cup blinkers come back with eyes filled with mud."

Went to post at 4:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Car-buncle suffered from interference on the turn, but saved ground throughout and was very lucky as compared with Wax Taper. The latter got away badly and lost a half dozen lengths on the stretch turn, was carried, hopelessly wide and received an incompetent ride generally. He bumped All Gold, who in turn bore into and crossed Margraviate just as the field was straightened for home. Latson finished strong and was favored in the contention being removed through the fouling. Fonslee ran a surprisingly good race for him. Prince of Melbourne, evidently far from being fit, made a fast move on the far turn, but failed signally in the stretch. Bills of Troy appears to be out of form.

Scratched—26263 Ten Candles, 124; 26270 Arden, 90; 26076 Alsike, 89.

Winner—Br. g, by Friar Tuck—Keepsake.

Went to post at 5:10. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Lucky Star is at home on the grass, received a lucky and perfect ride and finished strongly. Eloim was lucky and put up a speedy and game effort. Marotien ran a good race and showed a glimpse of his true form. Belgrade was much the best, but got away badly, lost ten lengths on the turns and was badly ridden, but finished like a whirlwind. Fairy Tale closed a large gap. Mercer was probably short.

Winner—Ch. f, by Pirate of Penzance—Bettie Wilson.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next three driving. Pirate's Queen with her light weight shook off Maggie Davis nearing the half and easily maintained the lead thereafter. Excelsis closed fast after making up ground from the half mile post as did also Fantasy. The latter ran a striking race. Haviland was right there to the last sixteenth and then stopped. McInerney got Moses all tangled up at the start. He pulled him in back of his field at the first turn and never got clear sailing until down the backstretch. Even then the colt had little or no speed and altogether ran a bad race. Lee King entangled at the first turn, couldn't run a little when he did get out. He can do better. Maggie Davis as usual ran her six furlongs well.

Overweights—Pirate's Queen, 1 pound; Excelsis, 2 1/2; Haviland, 1 1/2; Lee King, 1 1/2; Moses, 3. Pirate's Queen, show, 3 to 1. Excelsis, show, 2 to 1. Fantasy, show, 4 to 1. Moses, show, 3 to 5. Lee King, show, out.

Winner—Ch. c, by Halma—Sudie McNairy.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won with consummate ease; second handily. The winner was reported to have worked five-eighths in one minute flat. If so he ran back to his work. He is a grand, upstanding chestnut of heroic and symmetrical proportions. Easily in front from flag fall, he fairly ran away from his field. Herodiade had enough after the first quarter, but was the best of the others. Harry Beck ran at about an even clip throughout, just getting up in time to nail C. Rosenfeld on the post. The latter had a fine turn of speed, but stopped noticeably at the end. Harry Wilson was outsped from start to finish.

No show betting.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Early Morn.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start fair only. Won easily and going away on the end; second easily. Endurance by Right is a high class filly, and after being outrun to the head of the stretch closed on the inside rail with a dazzling turn of speed, eating up Sweet Billie in the last fifty yards. Sweet Billie is phenomenally fast for about a half mile, but is weak hearted when caught. Sister Jeanie carried her speed for four and a half furlongs and then stopped. Wainamoinen, off poorly, closed stoutly and would have been third in a jump or so. Flora Pomona went all to pieces in the last eighth. Doreen ran a dull race and can do better. She was all entangled at the start and never got to going until hopelessly out of it.

Scratched—26198 The Boston, 115; (26029) Talpa, 115; 26065 Throistle, 115; 26065 Quality, 110; 25203 Julia Junkin, 110; 26065 Autumn Leaves, 115; 25883 Lulllight, 110.

Winner—B. f, by Kingston—Seville.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Lady ran one of her best races and was easily the best after the first half had been run. Eva Rice hung on longer than was expected and ran a clever race. Vesuvian ran a good race, moving at almost an even clip throughout. Louisville was cut off badly at the first turn and had hardly a chance after that. She made up considerable ground under a bad ride in the last quarter. The Conqueror II, closed ground in the stretch after being outrun badly the first three-quarters. Martimas ran well for three-quarters and then retired.

Overweights—Boney Boy, 1 pounds.

The Lady, show, out. Eva Rice, show, 2 to 1. Vesuvian, show, 3 to 1. Louisville, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. g, by Aloha—Virgie.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; next two driving. Robert Waddell, off in front, was slightly outrun to the head of the stretch, where he was badly pocketed between Theory and Yellow Tail. Before reaching the last eighth Bullman pulled him out and he came on like a great horse and was running over his field at the end. Yellow Tail came fast in the last eighth and looked all over a winner until Robert Waddell got to him in the last fifty yards, where he weakened. Gold 'Or stopped in the last sixteenth only. Theory had a fine turn of speed for five and one-half furlongs and then faded away to nothing. Introductor has a fair turn of speed and will bear watching.

Enghurst closed in the last sixteenth but had no chance to beat the winner. Maryland Reserve, slow to get going, made up ground in the last quarter, finishing strongly. Sam Lazarus Esq. ran well for seven-eighths and then propped. He runs best over a heavy or slow track and is ready to win in that kind of going. The field was a rather poor one.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Pretty Rosie was easily the best. He was interfered with on the backstretch and had to go around his field. Fucino ran a great race and closed a big gap in a determined way. Meggs was crowded on the fence in the stretch, hurting his rider's leg. This had a tendency to make him stop riding. Eleven Bells was slow to get away and closed strong. McCleary doubled up badly. Dr. Fannie had no speed today.
